Supervisor Knabe made the following statement:

“May 7, 2005 marked the 60th Anniversary of V-E (Victory in Europe) Day, commemorating the unconditional surrender of the Axis powers of World War II.

“From 1939 to 1945, Europe was under siege, and American Forces joined those of the Allied nations in a bitter and violent struggle to overcome tyranny and liberate Europe, Africa and the Middle East. It is important to our heritage that we take the time to recognize the sacrifice of those who led in this struggle and the thousands who made freedom possible for future generations.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Knabe, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, unanimously carried, the Board called upon all citizens throughout the County to join in the commemoration of the 60th Anniversary of V-E Day (Victory in Europe Day).
